The French attribute their defeat at Orleans to the superiority of the Prussian Artillery. The Garrison of Montauban have made a brave and gallant fight. The Prussian Garrison of Metz.

The German have occupied Epinal; five thousand of their troops are vigorously investing Metz.

Correspondents state that fighting at Metz on the seventh was obstinate and losses heavy on both sides.

(By British Indian Cable.)

LONDON, 15th Oct. 7.50 p.m.

The Siege of Soissons and Verdun has been regularly commenced. The Prussian Army is well provided with well served artillery.

A proclamation has been issued by M. Gambetta confirming, with unexampled vigour, the French successes at Paris, which have compelled the Prussians to extend back their lines all round the city. The Prussians declare on the other hand that they will maintain the defensive until the bombardment commences and change tactics only when action is made, which are always vigorously repelled.

President Grant has issued a Proclamation against enlistment for military expeditions.

The French Troops are greatly harassing the communication of the German Army.

The Times of today is declaring the vindictive character of the war is assuming and three times on the basis of dismantling the Fortresses of Alsace and Lorraine, and Treaty with England similar to the recent Belgian triple Treaty.

Colonel James Primrose has been gazetted quarter-master at Alexandria vice Garnierich resigned.

LONDON, 15th Oct. 7.50 p.m.

Gen. Garibaldi has been appointed to command the Italian Army in Sicily. He has been enthusiastically received.

Gen. Werder with the Fourteenth German Army Corps has occupied Epinal.

Gen. Bonaparte's Division will receive an important command.

News from Paris dated Fourteenth states that the population of the city is much depressed. A successful sortie it is said, was made on the thirteenth towards Châtillon and considerable loss inflicted on the enemy.

The Prussian Garrison of Metz.

LONDON, 15th Oct. 7.50 p.m.

An official despatch dated Versailles today, declares the alleged French success outside Paris have induced to enter the depression of the people.

Soissons has capitulated after four days obstinate defence.

Gen. Garibaldi has been appointed to command the Italian Army in Sicily. He has been enthusiastically received.

A circular of the Government at Rome maintains that the Italian Army has not ideas of conquest and never opposed the German army. Count Bismarck, it says, desires to reduce France to a second rate Power.

A CANDID STATEMENT.—A New York paper says that the French Army is much more ready than any other women in the world. This is only a delicate way of saying "a sweet to the sweet." But as the ladies of New York are so partial to sweet, we should recommend their sighing away if they would suggest in their suits to lolly-pop the question.
